* NO ONWARD CHAIN * Nestled in one of the most desirable roads in Blackwater this property offers fantastic scope for any incoming purchaser to substantially enlarge/ improve subject to planning permission. Occupying a generous corner plot means that there is a very spacious wrap around garden which is screened by hedges around the perimeter offering complete privacy, at the front of the property there is driveway parking for several cars and a detached garage. This family home has been subject to recent refurbishment inside and already offers ample living space. Downstairs consists of two reception rooms, kitchen/breakfast room, conservatory and downstairs cloakroom. Upstairs there are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, snug single bedroom and a modern and refitted bathroom. The property is also located on the fringe of Hawley common offering great countryside walks as well as being walking distance to great local schools, shops and other amenities.
