

51 Deuchar Street, Newcastle Upon Tyne, NE2 1JX

Offers Over £200,000

Hive Estates presents to the market this period two bedroom ground floor flat located in Jesmond. With original wooden flooring, oak solid doors and large windows this home boasts warmth and character and has plenty of space throughout.

Upon entrance, the bright hallway provides direct access to the first bedroom and the lounge. The front bedroom holds a bay window. Spacious and bright, the room has lots of potential. To the lounge, dressed in warm greys and creams, it creates the perfect cosy living space. Here you can access the second bedroom, minimal in design with a large window overseeing the private rear yard.

A step up to the separate kitchen, with integrated appliances, fitted wooden cabinetry and marble effect countertops, the space is functional and trendy. Exposed brick and part tiled walls decorate the space, with a vertical column radiator and door to the rear yard. To the rear of the property is the family bathroom, fully tiled with WC, wash basin and shower over bath, the room is spacious and bright.

Externally, there is a private rear yard offering total seclusion. Tiered and with a back gate providing access to the street behind. This home is in a great location, with close links to local shops, transport links and amenities it would make a fantastic place to live.
