LOWER HOUSE FARM

An imposing six bedroom, Grade II Listed red brick farmhouse featuring a two-bedroom self-contained annex. Dating back to c1690 (William and Mary period), this impressive three-story farmhouse sits on approximately one and a half acres with countryside views across the Teme Valley. Lower House Farm includes a bespoke insulated detached triple garage, private driveway, and separate self-contained office/studio.

Meticulously refurbished with attention to design, detailing, and quality, the renovation was managed by the current owners along with a specialist conservation architect. The property showcases numerous original period features and timbers throughout. A unique, much-treasured residence, it has been a perfect family home for the past 22 years.

Ground Floor: The grand front door leads to an entrance hallway with built-in storage. The formal dining room features an elegant stone fireplace and woodburner, along with reclaimed Oak/Elm flooring, flowing into a central hallway with access to the vaulted cellars and a guest cloakroom/WC. The formal sitting room has dual aspect sash windows, a log burner, and underfloor central heating. The heart of the home is the open plan kitchen, dining, and living room with a large walk-in Inglenook fireplace, contemporary kitchen with a free standing island, with dual aspect windows showcasing countryside views.

First Floor: A wide solid Oak staircase leads to four double bedrooms, all with original polished timber floors. There are two family bathrooms, one with a bath. The large main bedroom features two concealed large walk-in wardrobes. A self-contained utility room with shelving, washing machine, and tumble dryer is also on this floor.

Second Floor: This floor has a further two double bedrooms and a recently refurbished family bathroom with a shower and built-in bath.

Annex (Court House): The annex, located on the west wing, is separated from the main house by a yew hedge and has its own front door, parking area, and garden. It consists of three floors: a ground floor with sitting/dining room, wood burner, kitchen, larder, and utility/storage cupboard; a first floor with a large reception room, family bathroom, and storage; and a second floor with two double bedrooms and built-in storage.

Outside: Approached via a shared driveway, the property has a private driveway, turning circle, and triple parking bay. The lawned garden wraps around the house with multiple patio spaces for outdoor entertaining. A summer house, lean-to single garage, along with a fully insulated triple timber garage with a self-contained office/studio are also included.

LOCATION

Lower House Farm is located along a quiet country lane within Stockton-On-Teme, west Worcestershire. Nearby settlements include Standford Bridge, Great Witley and Abberley. Mill Farm Country Retail can be found in Standford Bridge and includes a café, hair salon, farm shop, lifestyle shop and dance studio. The Bridge pub is also situated at the end of the lane, all of which are just a short walk away.

The cathedral city of Worcester (14 miles), lying on the banks of the river Severn, provides for high street and boutique shopping, and characterised by one of England's great cathedrals, county cricket ground, premier league rugby club, racecourse and university.

Ombersley (10 miles) is one of the most sought after and charming villages in Worcestershire. The first known reference to the village was the granting of a Charter to Abbot Egwin, later Saint Egwin, of Evesham Abbey in 706 AD. Ombersley has been recently named among the 'most desirable' places to live in in the UK, according to the Telegraph. The village of Ombersley boasts a whole host of amenities including a renowned butchers and deli shop (Checketts), delicatessen, primary school, doctor's surgery, parish church and post office together with many public houses and restaurants.

Ludlow (18 miles) is a delightful market town with renowned eateries, cafés, boutique shops and regular markets.

There are direct train lines to London from Worcester and Birmingham. The Worcestershire Parkway is located 19 miles away, which increases the capacity to London as well as reduced journey times. This has a significant impact on Worcestershire's accessibility to the capital and other regional centres.

If education is a priority then Worcestershire is blessed with an enviable mix of schooling at all levels, including a variety of independent establishments, allowing parents to select the right environment for their children's needs. The property is in the catchment for Martley High School a much sort after state school, while The King's School Worcester and The Royal Grammar School are located in the heart of Worcester city centre. Herefordshire Sixth Form College is also within easy access.
