FINE & COUNTRY

LOVINGTON VILLA

This stunning detached property is located on a quiet lane in the sought-after village of Lower Broadheath which offers fabulous countryside views whilst still being close by to the centre of Worcester. This 6 bedroom family home has been extended by the present owners and benefits from a large kitchen diner, orangery and an office space which was once part of a self-contained annex so offers great flexibility. Approaching 6 acres of land, including stables and pastures which have planning permission for equestrian use.

KEY FEATURES

Ground Floor:

The property is entered via a storm porch into a spacious hallway with a beautiful fireplace and ornate coving, stairs giving access to the first floor and useful understairs storage.

The living room is of a substantial size with ornate coving a feature fireplace and fabulous French doors leading out onto the patio area. Internal glass French doors lead into the beautiful kitchen diner and with space for a sofa really is the hub of this family home. The kitchen has a range of wall and base units with black granite worktops and Belfast sink. There are two ovens, 6 ring hob, built in microwave and dish washer, wine fridge and an American style fridge freezer. Adjoining the kitchen is a utility. The kitchen flows through double doors into the orangery which offers a great space for entertaining and socialising with family and friends with fabulous views over the gardens.

A separate entrance door leads into the versatile space of this wonderful home which is currently being used as an office. However, with it's own kitchen, sitting room and shower room this could easily be reinstated as a self-contained one bedroom annex, perfect for multi-generational living.

SELLER INSIGHT

“The present owners were thrilled to find Lovington Villa and explain that for them it's the perfect package of a spacious home, surrounded by beautiful countryside with paddocks for their horses and only a few miles from Worcester. It has given them the very best of town and country living for the last 10 years.

The house began life in 1900 and was later extended. The current owners have updated the property including replacing all the windows with Victorian style hardwood windows and adding an orangery.

The owners describe the house as “an absolute joy to live in.” The well proportioned kitchen, lounge and orangery have comprised the busy hub of the home, which is ideal for family living but also offers easy hospitality. They recall parties for up to 40 guests, who can wander freely in the house and garden, but who invariably all settle in the kitchen. It has been the setting for large dinner parties, and friends always say Lovington Villa is the favourite venue, for social events. It is a home that meets every need.

The owners' favourite room is the light flooded orangery where they enjoy the relaxed ambience, and charming garden views. It is where they read and generally unwind after a tiring day. It is a summer's evening pleasure to enjoy a glass of wine there when, with the doors wide open, the house and garden become one. It is also a room that extends the summer, as you can still savour the views on the coolest of days; whilst the log fire in the lounge makes a perfect winter refuge.

The garden is an oasis of calm and a charming mix of cottage garden, lawn, shrubbery and mature trees, from the garden paddocks slope gently down to the boundary stream and the rolling countryside beyond.

Situated on a quiet lane with no through traffic, but with community minded Lower Broadheath within walking distance, for the post office, school, community shop and two pubs, whilst vibrant Worcester is only 3 miles away.

The owners are moving closer to family and will sorely miss Lovington Villa. It has been a very special home and has given them a fantastic lifestyle. They take away many very happy memories.*

LOCAL AREA

Lower Broadheath, the birthplace of Edward Elgar, lies 3 miles from the city of Worcester. The village itself has a popular primary school, village hall, church, post office, village store, common and pubs.

The county town and cathedral city of Worcester, lying on the banks of The River Severn, is characterised by one of England's great Cathedrals, its Racecourse, County Cricket Ground, Premiership Rugby Club and University.

Malvern, the main focal point for the district, retains its Victorian grandeur with its listed railway station and Malvern Festival Theatre. In addition to being an area of outstanding natural beauty, Malvern has a rare mix of boutique shops and cafes.

The M5 motorway accessed via J7, at South Worcester, provides for ready access to Birmingham and the surrounding industrial and commercial areas as well as the M42, Birmingham International Airport and the M40 for onward travel to London. The M5 South also provides for commuting to Cheltenham, Gloucester and Bristol.

The newly opened Worcestershire Parkway Railway Station, situated to the east of Worcester and only 5 miles from the centre of the city, is intended to increase the capacity to London as well as reduce journey times. This has a significant impact on Worcestershire's accessibility to the capital and other regional centres.
