PRESERVED, RESTORED and IMPROVED are perfect ways to describe the care and attention to detail that the current owners have taken with this superbly presented THREE BEDROOM Georgian end of terrace house. Built in 1835 over three storeys the original build was extended to one end to add 50% more house at a later date to expand what is already ample accommodation. The property bursting with ORIGINAL FEATURES briefly comprises, modern kitchen breakfast room open plan through an arch to a dining area, stunning shower room and cloakroom to the ground floor with three large reception rooms plus office space to the next level including beautiful formal entrance hall plus three double bedrooms and elegant bathroom with claw foot bath and gold fixtures and fittings to the second floor. Outside the property has a stunning outdoor entertainment area with private bar and lounge with screened outside seating. The elevated plot sits high above the road and enjoys a good degree of privacy as it wraps around the building with off road parking on stone bonded driveway to the rear. The property sits on regular bus routes and is only a short walk from the heart of the bustling market town of Louth, its amenities, excellent schools and parks.
