

102c Croydon Road London, SE20 7AB

Asking Price £300,000

Welcome to this charming top-floor flat, situated within a beautifully converted Victorian property on the ever-popular Croydon Road. This well-presented one-bedroom apartment combines period elegance with modern comforts, offering a perfect blend of style and convenience for those seeking a home in the heart of SE20.

The flat features a spacious, modern kitchen, recently updated with contemporary fittings and ample storage. Its sleek design and integrated appliances create a perfect space for both cooking and entertaining. The bathroom is equally impressive, boasting tasteful décor and high-quality fixtures, including a luxurious Japanese bath, providing a unique and tranquil retreat.

One of the standout features of this property is the storage within a lofted space, offering valuable additional storage that is both practical and rare in a property of this size. The flat also benefits from double glazed windows throughout, ensuring a peaceful and comfortable living environment.
