What a wonderfully presented family home, an absolute delight for our firm to market on behalf of clients. Step through the front door into a welcoming entrance hall with access to a gym studio, useful ground floor cloakroom and into a huge open plan kitchen, dining and family room with a high specification kitchen, family seating area and space for large dining table which would be perfect for family gatherings and leads onto a raised sun terrace overlooking the garden. In addition to the kitchen, you also have a laundry room and a large separate lounge with feature fire surround. To the first floor you will love the family bathroom with grey anthracite fittings and herringbone tiles and the four double bedrooms with wardrobes and an en-suite shower room to the first bedroom. Add to all that accommodation some extra features like underfloor heating to the ground floor, modern contemporary cottage style decoration throughout and all that parking on the front and you will agree that this is a special property.

Location wise you are close to Rayleigh train station, local shops, primary and secondary schools, and a short drive into the vibrant High Street. We have produced a 360' virtual tour for the property, take a look, be impressed and book an immediate appointment to view inside.
