What a perfect property this will be for buyers keen to literally unpack the moving day boxes and start enjoying this fabulous two bedroom home straight away. Every room is well decorated with a high specification kitchen and quality cloakroom and bathroom suites. Some particular features are the spacious lounge with room for a dining table which overlooks the sunny South facing rear garden and in the first bedroom a large floor to ceiling window which illuminates the room. The developer, Bellway Homes enjoy a positive reputation for a high standard of workmanship and when combined with the maintenance provided by the seller who has lived here since new seven years ago this really is an exciting property listing for our firm.

The property is set within an attractive courtyard development which is a great setting for both retired buyers and young families with ease of access to local shops at Manners Way, green spaces at Priory Park, the A127 and Southend Airport. We have prepared a 360' virtual tour, why not take a look and then quickly make an appointment to visit.
