10 Cromwell Road

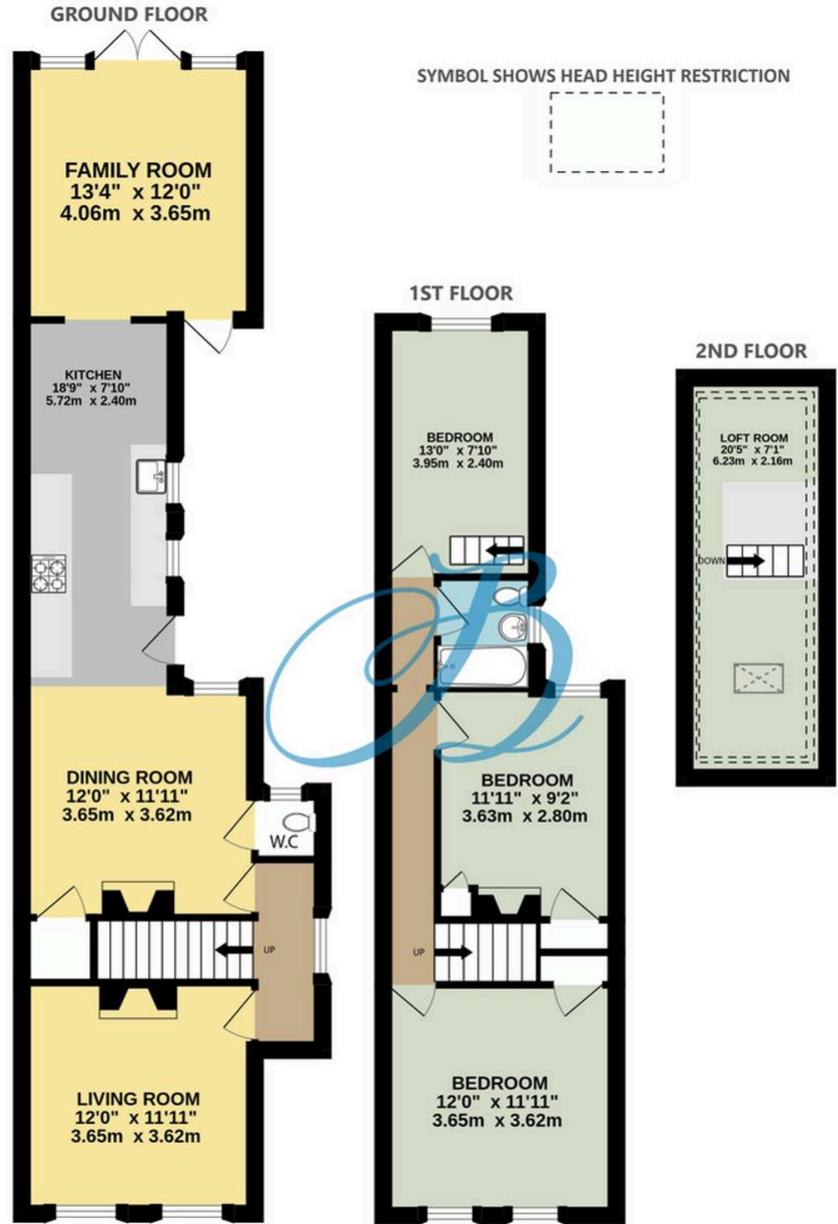

Maidenhead

A handsome red brick Victorian semi-detached home situated in the popular All Saints area of Maidenhead, within 1 mile of Maidenhead train station and town centre. Inside, a cosy sitting room with feature fireplace and twin sash windows is at the front, whilst the rear dining room has been opened to the kitchen, creating a huge flowing entertaining area. At the rear is a glorious timber frame sun room with ample space for seating and dining, with a marvellous view of the mature garden. There is a handy downstairs w.c. to one side. The long lawn is framed by tall trees and lovely borders leading to a fantastic insulated home office with power and internet. There is side access to a useful patio area too. Upstairs there is plenty of space; the master bedroom across the front with stripped wood flooring and sash windows is generously sized, whilst the second and third bedrooms each take a double bed, with the bathroom in between. There is a cute mezzanine loft area above the rear bedroom.
