Pax Cottage is a beautifully presented four double bedroom cottage, ideally situated in the popular village of Claverham with no onward chain. Steeped in history, this former farmhouse, once part of the Cadbury estate, is believed to be one of the oldest properties in the village. Immaculately presented, this light and airy semi-detached home offers generous well presented, yet sympathetic accommodation with a spacious lounge diner that enjoys a dual aspect with sash windows flooding the room with natural light, log burning fire and exposed floorboards. The kitchen benefits from bespoke cottage style fitted cabinets and oak worksurface with a range of integrated appliances. A bay fronted breakfast room enjoys a bright outlook over the rear garden and is ideal for family dining with bay bench seating and charming Aga. The ground floor accommodation is completed with the entrance hall, rear boot room and WC. Upstairs you find four bedrooms and a well appointed family bathroom with four piece suite.

Outside you enjoy beautiful gardens with a plot wrapping around the property to three sides with the front being an exceptional lawned garden with an established border boasting a plethora of colourful flowers, mature shrubs, trees and enclosed by stone wall. The rear is laid to York flagstones and deck and is an ideal environment to enjoy on summer evenings for 'al fresco' dining. Outbuildings include a timber summer house, currently used as an art studio but perfect for those who require a home office plus a detached 'L' shaped garage with workshop to its side. Off street parking for numerous vehicles is offered to the side of the property.
