A charming mid-terrace period house, providing fantastic access to the village centre of Yatton - 107 High Street is a property with an abundance of charm, offering a classic Edwardian layout with a contemporary finish and social layout. The tasteful accommodation benefits from features such as decorative coving and stripped floorboards in some rooms, providing the character you would hope to find, and is laid out traditionally over two floors with a beautiful bay-fronted sitting room to the front complete with a cosy log-burning fire. The hub of the home is situated to the rear of the property, a wonderful open-plan modern kitchen diner with double doors opening out onto the rear garden from the dining area. Stairs rise from the entrance hall where you will find two generous double bedrooms along with a further single, the family bathroom completes the internal accommodation on offer.

Outside, the rear garden boasts a southwest orientation that provides you with afternoon and evening sun to take advantage of during the summer months. This area is a low-maintenance affair, with areas laid to the patio and a central pathway leading to a gate offering rear access. Various raised beds break the space up nicely, while a covered area provides handy storage space and an area for storing logs for the log-burning stove. You will also discover a further garden store and an outside WC. To the front, steps rise to the main entrance, flanked on one side by a rockery that is planted with a variety of shrubs. There is also off-street parking and the added benefit of a garage that can be found just across the road from the property.

The village of Yatton is renowned as being ideal for family life, enjoying its own primary school, wide array of shops, doctors and dental surgeries, public library and church. For those looking to commute, there is a mainline railway connecting to Bristol, Bath, London and the South West, with the M5 motorway network accessed a short distance away

Beautiful period home, ideally situated for access to all of Yatton's amenities
