Constructed in 1869 Mannington House is a delightful and spacious home set centrally within its own gardens offering an excellent package. The house is particularly attractive occupying a corner plot with distinct Italianate architecture, including arched topped sash windows, which have all been recently replaced, high ceilings, deep bay windows and a grand staircase with hand carved rail. Mannington House has been modernised to compliment these wonderful features with modern kitchen, open plan living area, ensuite and décor throughout. There is plenty of reception space including a separate sitting room/dining room as well as five double bedrooms, three bathrooms, two of which are ensuite. There is also a boot room and laundry room in addition to gated driveway with plenty of parking, a garage and vegetable patches.

Conveniently situated in Elmfield on the outskirts of Ryde, the house is a short walk inland from the beaches and coastline of the north east shores of the island. The villages of Seaview and Nettlestone are less than 2 miles away and Bembridge with its harbour and extensive mooring facilities is also within easy reach. Bembridge and Seaview offer sailing clubs, restaurants, cafes and a range of amenities including the community run store in Seaview and organic produce shop and café in the centre of Bembridge. The Fast Cat and Hovercraft passenger services connect to the mainland from Ryde which is 3 minute drive/15 minute walk away. Ryde provides further comprehensive range of amenities including Ryde School. Excellent walks can be enjoyed along the beach either towards Appley beach or to Seaview and beyond to Priory Bay.
