Houseboat Poem 25 began life as a Humber Lighter in 1957 carrying palm oil to the refineries in and around The Humber Estuary. Although her name conjures up images of romance and creativity, it is actually an acronym for "Premier Oil Extraction Mill". With our Poem being number 25 in a fleet of 30 or so boats and barges owned by the Premier Oil Company. The conversion of this industrial workhorse to a beautiful floating home started in December 2015 and was completed in May 2017, when she was towed down the North Sea and the English Channel to her mooring in Bembridge.

Poem 25 now provides spacious and light filled accommodation across two decks, with a superb open plan reception space overlooking the harbour and four bedrooms and three en-suite bathrooms below. Poem 25 has been designed for modern living but seeks to reflect its heritage through the use of exposed steel and timber and designed to retain the heritage of the hull and external decks. Externally she is clad in cedar and Piet Mondrian exterior décor with decks fore and aft for entertainment and outdoor space. Internally creature comforts include a large fully equipped kitchen, dining and living areas, stylish lighting, large aluminium windows affording panoramic views of the harbour and luxurious bedrooms with en suites served by a generous hallway. The setting is idyllic overlooking the harbour with its stunning wildlife and boating activity. Furthermore Poem 25 has parking for two cars opposite the mooring and a further car parking space in the designated houseboat car park 50 metres away.

Poem 25 was built by the present owners as their second home and as a furnished holiday let. In partnership with a local agent Poem 25 has proved to be a very successful holiday destination and has generated in excess of £200,000 in rental income since 2018, as well as providing a delightful second home for the owners and their family. Poem 25 is being sold fully furnished and equipped with the opportunity of carrying on as a holiday let business.
