Description

Vale house offers a unique opportunity to operate and run a superb guest house and glamping facility while also being part of a rural retail village in the Engine Yard and more prominently Belvoir Castle. Vale house is perfectly situated for tourism and local trade.

The Engine Yard is set over a three acres and offers over 12,000 sq ft of retail space converted from charming early Victorian estate buildings.

Location

Belvoir Castle is a popular tourist destination in the beautiful Vale of Belvoir in Leicestershire attracting a mix of high-end corporate and private clients. With Heritage tours and corporate events it attracts large numbers of local, national and international visitors. The Engine Yard, a cluster of former workshop buildings, sits in the shadow of the Castle opposite the entrance and offers a new shopping experience for local trade with this newly converted retail site.
