Description

The Victoria Hall is located in the centre of the lovely, traditional English market town of Oakham in the County of Rutland. Known as The Agricultural Hall from its construction, the building was utilised as a meeting place and library for Rutland's farmers. In 1899 the name was changed to The Victoria Hall and the hall was formally established as a charity.

Location

No 39 occupies a prime location on Oakham High Street adjacent to a pedestrian crossing and surrounded by other retail outlets including Boots the Chemist, Boots Opticians, and numerous private retailers.

Oakham is a popular Market town and the County capital of Rutland, the smallest County in the UK. Well positioned in the Midlands close to the A1 at Greetham/Stretton with good access to other popular market towns, Stamford, Melton, Grantham and Uppingham all within 15 miles, and cities to include Peterborough and Leicester within 20 miles away. Motorway access is circa 20 miles West at Junction 21a, via the A46 from Melton Mowbray.

Accommodation

The accommodation comprises the following areas: The offices have use of the communal Kitchen and Wc's shared with the other office users and retail outlets who use Victoria Hall on a permanent or temporary basis.
