Property Description

Roselea is a delightful, three bedroomed detached bungalow located in Lybster, an old fishing village on the east coast of Caithness, within walking distance to all local amenities. Boasting sea views and a generous garden to the side and rear elevations, as well as offering off-street parking. The property is well presented throughout and the current owner has addressed several issues noted in home report. The accommodation consists of, entrance hall/dining area, double aspect lounge which has an electric fire with wooden surround, three bedrooms and bathroom comprising a WC, wash hand basin and bath with shower mixer tap. The bright and spacious kitchen is fitted with wall and base mounted units with worktops, has complimentary splash backs, a stainless steel sink with drainer and mixer and integral white goods including an electric oven and hob. There is plumbing for a washing machine, and from here, there is a door giving access to the side garden. Externally, the garden is laid to lawn with mature trees and sited here is a timber garden shed. Lybster sits in a sweeping bay with views across the North Sea and down to the Moray Coast. The village offers a wide range of amenities including, primary school, hotels, shops and golf course, spreading over 15 acres. In Lybster you will be drawn in by the blend of ancient history and stunning scenery. This is an area peppered with archaeological sites with Grey Cairns of Camster located five miles inland on the Watten Road, where visitors can travel back in time by crawling inside a 5,000 year old cairn or by exploring Achavanich Standing Stones which stand sentry by Stemster Hill. Viewing of this detached bungalow is highly recommended to fully appreciate the space of accommodation within. This property would be excellent for someone looking for a more rural lifestyle but within a village community.
