Property Description

Munro & Noble are delighted to present this rare opportunity to purchase a quaint three bedroomed, detached bungalow with garden grounds, located in the picturesque village of Diabaig in Torridon, on the beautiful West coast of Scotland. Occupying an elevated and peaceful position which extends to 0.3 acres, Ben Bhraggie also benefits double glazed windows, electric heating, and stunning views over Loch Torridon and the surrounding countryside. The property itself requires modernisation, but once complete, will suit a variety of potential purchasers and could be used as an excellent holiday let or a cosy family home. The accommodation within is generous in size and comprises an entrance vestibule and entrance hall, a living room with open fire, a further sitting room with electric fire, three double bedrooms, a kitchen with study off and a porch. The kitchen is fitted with a number of wall and base mounted units with worktops, and has a stainless steel sink with taps and drainer. Free-standing appliances included in the sale comprise a washing machine and an electric cooker. Completing the accommodation is the bathroom which has a wash hand basin, a WC and bath with electric shower, all finished with complimentary tiling.

Externally, there is a tarmac driveway which provides parking for two vehicles, and sited within the grounds is an outbuilding and two caravans which are included in the sale. The sizeable garden is a combination of mature trees and hedges, with fencing and walling forming the boundaries. Early viewing of this home is essential to appreciate the idyllic location and all the potential it has to offer.

Diabaig is a coastal fishing and crofting township in Wester Ross in the North West Highlands of Scotland. It lies on the northern shores of upper Loch Torridon, and beneath the mountain ridges of Ben Alligin. The village has a restaurant, and further amenities can be found nearby in Torridon which include a general store/cafe, a medical practice, a community centre/cafe (offering evening meals) and an excellent restaurant and bar can be found across the Loch at the Torridon Hotel. Torridon is situated on the west coast of Scotland, approx. 70 miles to the west of Inverness. The area is a magnet for climbers, with 6 Munros (Scottish mountains over 3,000 ft) in the immediate area, and also nature lovers. The scenery is dramatic and considered to embody the North West Highland landscape, and the property itself also lies in close proximity to the North Coast 500 route.
