Roxby Nook, Roxby Road, Thornton-Le-Dale, Pickering, Yorkshire, YO18 7SX

Guide price £499,950

Immaculately presented four bedroom detached property. Nicely tucked away at the end of a private drive, this property was built in 1950, occupying a lovely position off Roxby Road with a beautiful garden.

The property has mains gas central heating, UPVC double glazing and offers versatile living accommodation arranged over two floors with an east/west aspect. There are two light and airy reception rooms, one that enjoys the morning sunshine and has an open fire, the other with a gas fire and a lovely outlook across the garden, opening into the kitchen/dining area. A ground floor double bedroom with dressing area and en-suite bathroom. The first floor there are three further bedrooms with a good size bathroom.

The garden is glorious and features an expanse of lawn with mature trees, vegetable plot, south facing summer shed and patio; it offers a high degree of privacy during the Spring/Summer months and to the keen gardener or a growing family. In addition there is a detached, brick built garage with York stone paving in front and parking for up to 4 vehicles with a turning circle.

Thornton le Dale is located in North Yorkshire, about 12 miles from Scarborough, with a postcard thatched cottage, idyllic gardens and a stream that runs alongside the street. This picturesque village offers easy access to the local market towns of Pickering and Malton and to the coast. Close to Dalby Forest National Park and the North Yorkshire Moors the village has a lot to offer with many local shops and amenities all on hand.
