11 Mayfield, Whitby Road, Pickering, North Yorkshire, YO18 7HH Guide price £325,000

An immaculate four bedroom, mid terrace, Edwardian property. Situated in the thriving market town of Pickering. Full of charm and period features, this home has been tastefully decorated and is beautifully presented throughout. To the front of the property is a garden with well-stocked borders, to the rear is a low maintenance courtyard with parking access leading onto a private access road.

This property comprises; entrance porch, entrance hall way, spacious living room, separate kitchen and utility. To the first floor is a family bathroom with a W/C, two double bedrooms, dressing room, and a further single bedroom. To the second floor is a double bedroom.

The property lies in Pickering on the edge of the North York Moors National Park, and is close to the town centre with all the local amenities you could need close to hand. There are shops, cafes, a regular market, library and excellent tourist attractions including a museum and the incredibly popular North York Moors Railway, which runs daily heritage steam and diesel services from Pickering to Whitby through the heart of the national park. Lying on the crossing point of the A169/A170, Pickering occupies a central location in the area, with excellent access to the moors, coast and Yorkshire Wolds, including the neighbouring market town - and Yorkshire's food capital - Malton.
