3 Bargate Grove, Hull, HU5 5DL

£135,000

 NO ONWARD CHAIN **

This end of terrace property would benefit from a degree of modernisation throughout, however once renovated would make an ideal home for the growing family seeking to reside within the catchment of high Ofsted rated schools and just off the well-connected Willerby Road, surrounded by an abundance of local shops and businesses. The aforementioned reasons also make the property ideal for an investor wanting to undertake a project to add value to and then sell on or introduce to the rental market.

Briefly comprising entrance hall, bathroom furnished with a two-piece suite, spacious bay fronted lounge and fitted kitchen with rear lobby off incorporating a storage space and cloakroom. The first floor boasts a master bedroom with built-in storage cupboard and two good bedrooms.

Externally the property enjoys a wraparound garden which is mainly laid to lawn with stocked borders to the front and side aspect, and enclosed by brick walling and wrought iron fencing. A gate opens to the block paved rear garden that is complimented by well-stocked borders. The residence also benefits from having a storage shed and an outside tap. A new owner may also wish to apply for planning permission to lower the kerb in front of the property and create a provision for off-street parking.
