Whitakers Estate Agents are pleased to introduce this traditional mid-terrace style property which has been extended to offer ample and contemporary living space across both of its floors.

The internal layout briefly comprises entrance hall, spacious lounge and fitted kitchen / dining room with patio doors opening to the rear garden. The first floor boasts a bay fronted master bedroom, two further good bedrooms and a bathroom furnished with a three-piece suite.

Externally to the front aspect there is a block paved garden with brick walling and fencing to the surround; the rear garden is mainly laid to lawn with a patio seating area and fencing to the surround. A path leads to the rear ten-foot access and to the garage which can house a vehicle.

Taken together, the accommodation on offer ticks all the boxes for the growing family seeking to reside within the catchment of a number of high Ofsted rated schools and, as such, viewing at the earliest convenience is recommended to avoid disappointment.
