Whitakers Estate Agents are delighted to present this extensively extended and beautifully enhanced semi detached family home. Blending charming traditional features with contemporary living across three well-appointed floors, the property occupies a substantial 0.25-acre plot with enviable views over Kirk Ella Golf Course to the front, and open farmland to the rear.

The approach to the property features a partly lawned front garden framed by mature hedging and well-stocked borders, ensuring both charm and privacy. A large gravelled side driveway provides ample off-street parking for multiple vehicles, making the home as practical as it is inviting.

A fixed staircase leads to the first floor, where two double bedrooms are served by a family bathroom fitted with a four-piece suite. Further stairs rise to the second floor, which provides two additional bedrooms and a shower room.

French doors in the sitting room and kitchen / dining room open onto raised areas that descend onto the generously sized rear garden, which is predominantly laid to lawn with decorative planting, and boundary hedging.

Adding to the home's appeal is a detached garden office—perfect for professionals working from home while maintaining a healthy work-life balance. Additionally, the detached garage has been expertly converted to create a versatile trio of spaces: a gym, a laundry room, and a workshop.
