SITUATION

Bruce Building is located on Percy Street which runs south from Haymarket to Newgate Street and is one of the major transport routes through the city centre. The property is situated in a convenient location less than a 1-minute walk from Haymarket Bus and Metro Station and within 0.7 miles of Newcastle Central Station which offers nationwide rail links.

The property itself is in a prominent position in Newcastle City Centre, neighbouring Newcastle University, Northumberland Street and Eldon Square shopping centre.

While the property is not located in the traditional office core, it is easily accessible and benefits from fantastic local amenities.

DESCRIPTION

Bruce Building comprises a Grade II listed, National Heritage building with exceptional character features. The property was initially designed by Joseph Oswald and was built as the headquarters of Newcastle Breweries in 1901.

Having undergone change of use and refurbishment, the property has retained many of the original features including the stain-glass windows, decorative tiles and ornate covings.

The ground floor office accommodation has been finished to a Grade B specification and features:

- Timber Tile Flooring
- Gas Radiators
- Perimeter Trunking
- LG7 Lighting
- Kitchen Facility
- Meeting Room
- Shower Facility
