Stoneleigh, 1 The Bungalows, Beer Hackett DT9 6QR

'Stoneleigh' is a simply lovely, mature, detached bungalow situated in a very sought-after residential cul-de-sac address in the heart of this popular Dorset village. The property stands in a generous level plot and lovely manicured gardens of 0.14 acres approximately. The rear garden is particularly pretty and boasts a sunny westerly aspect and good privacy. The bungalow comes with a single garage / workshop, single carport and driveway parking for two to three cars. There is a large front garden giving a good depth from the cul-de-sac, that could be converted to more driveway parking if required, subject to the necessary planning permission. The property boasts excellent levels of natural light from a sunny east-to-west aspect plus large windows. There are views of the pretty parish church at the front. It is heated by oil-fired radiator central heating, an open fireplace and benefits from uPVC double glazing. It is in very good decorative condition throughout. The well-arranged, deceptively spacious accommodation (1402 square feet) comprises entrance reception hall, large sitting room with cut Hamstone open fireplace, kitchen / dining room, conservatory, undercover side area, inner hall, three generous bedrooms and a family shower room. The property has countryside and village centre walks from nearby the front door – ideal as you do not need to put the children or the dogs in the car! The hamlet of Beer Hackett has a church at its centre. The nearby village of Yetminster is an incredibly pretty and popular Dorset village enjoying a vibrant community. The properties in Yetminster are built almost entirely using an attractive natural stone. As well as the local store and a 16th century village pub, Yetminster possesses a variety of village amenities and services, including a GP surgery, a hairdressers, coffee shops, deli and a sports/social club with playing grounds and tennis courts. It is a very short drive to the stunning, historic town centre of Sherborne.
