

Denmark Street, WC2H

£1,450 Per week

Housed in the very building where The Rolling Stones recorded their debut album, these Lofthouse Apartments follow a less than authoritarian design aesthetic. Sitting above Regent Sounds Studio and with strong accents of punk rock, these apartments tap into the raw and unrivalled energy of Denmark Street, fuelling an alternative perspective on short and long stays. As the rebellious statement piece in these apartments, the bespoke gold trimmed black and white graffitied bed that makes for a bold and raucous aesthetic. While flanking either side, are the marbled moulin noir bedsides sitting below the industrial gunmetal pipe wall lights.

Denmark Street is located just off Charing Cross Road within easy reach of shops, bars and restaurants of the West End with both Tottenham Court Road and Leicester Square stations within a few minutes walk.
