

11 Vicarage Walk, Rosliston, DE12 8LB

Enjoying a peaceful cul de sac setting in the popular village of Rosliston is this well presented detached family home, offering Extended interiors, five bedrooms and superb outside space including parking for a number of vehicles and generous rear gardens. Benefitting from modern fittings and an attractive aspect towards the village Church to the rear, this attractive detached home offers ideal accommodation to suit a growing family, with further potential to extend if required without encroaching on the generous plot size. The interiors comprise briefly: reception hall, two reception rooms, breakfast kitchen, utility and cloakroom to the ground floor, with five bedrooms, a master en suite and refitted family bathroom to the first floor. Outside, the property benefits from a secluded setting at the end of the cul de sac, having parking and access via electric doors into the double garage to the front and an immaculate rear garden enjoying a superb degree of privacy.

Nestled within the scenic county of Derbyshire, Rosliston is a sought after rural village home to an array of village amenities to include a Co-Op, a pub, a post office and a church. The Rosliston Church of England Primary school is located within the village within walking distance from the property. For leisure pursuits, the village lies within the National Forest and is surrounded by open fields and farmland providing many countryside walks, with the Rosliston Forestry Centre being only a few minutes from the property and ideal for walking, cycling and activities including falconry, archery and fishing.

The location is convenient for travel along the A38 and A444 providing links to the national motorway network beyond, whilst the nearby train stations lie in Lichfield and Burton on Trent. A regular public bus route runs through the village itself.
