

10 Dove Grove, Egginton, DE65 6HH

Set in the tranquil Derbyshire village of Egginton is this beautifully presented detached bungalow, benefitting from extended and refurbished accommodation, four bedrooms and superb outside space including a large garage and a delightful rear garden. Having been extensively upgraded in recent years, the bungalow benefits from a modern kitchen, wet room style shower room and a fabulous garden room with vaulted ceilings, as well as a loft conversion providing a superb guest suite with private bathroom. The generously proportioned interiors comprise briefly entrance hall, central reception hall, breakfast kitchen, lounge with wood burner, garden room and cloakroom, with three ground floor bedrooms serviced by a shower room. To the first floor is a fourth bedroom with en suite bathroom. Outside, the property lies on a generous and secluded garden plot, having ample parking and a large detached garage with workshop to the front, with delightful and private rear garden with paved seating areas, greenhouses and raised flower beds.

The charming village of Egginton is home to a thriving yet peaceful village community home to the grade I listed St Wilfred's church, as well as the Memorial/Village Hall which is host to community events throughout the year including a church fete, harvest supper, St Wilfrid's night concert, village bonfire and a Christmas Fayre. For younger members of the family, there is a Primary School located within the Memorial Hall premises, as well as a playing field for the summer weekends and holidays. Egginton is full of history, and the official village website provides a map for the history trail, an activity that can be enjoyed by all locals. The village is ideally located for commuters needing swift access to the A38 (Derby, Lichfield) and A50 (Uttoxeter, Stoke, Nottingham) and is 4 miles from the Burton on Trent rail station which provides direct links to Birmingham City Centre.
