What The Vendor Loves About Their Home

Having moved to the area when the property was new in 2012, we were on the look out for a property that gave us easy access to the town center and the train station. We wanted the convenience of a well built modern house and also the ability to work from home. What we love about living here 12 years on, is the convenience of everything Frome has to offer right on our door step, we have been so impressed with how welcoming the town has been to us as a new family. The property itself has been great with the spacious rooms for us all to live in without being on top of each other and having the utility will be a must in our new home! We will miss our first home as it will hold great memories for a life time.
