What The Vendor Loves About Their Home

Having relocated to Frome, finding this apartment was the icing on the cake. I love its location with everything the town has to offer just a short stroll away and living in an apartment that is so modern just makes life easy not worrying about things going wrong. I love the large windows and the property is really energy efficient and warm. There is plenty of space on offer and still being able to entertain if I want with ease is really nice, having the two double bedrooms would be ideal for anyone looking to work from home as well. When people come to visit they can use the visitor parking spaces and even charge their car up if required. As life has taken a positive direction I am now looking to stay on the development which I love and buy a house with my partner.
