What The Vendor Loves About Their Home

Having lived here as our first home and now having two children we will always hold Singers Knoll in our hearts as a special place. Having lived here we love the space on offer throughout the property and we do not feel like we are tripping over ourselves. Having the kitchen diner makes sure we enjoy our family meals and the large lounge even has space to work from home if required. Unlike other two bedroom properties we saw the two generous double bedrooms is a real treat and not to mention the Southerly Facing Garden. As an area it is great for walking to all Frome has to offer and also for nipping down to the train station for day trips away.
