What Our Vendors Love

The current owners have told us how they found the flow of the house really attracted them; the kitchen dining space, adjoining front lounge and conservatory size are very generously proportioned, allowing you to always find room for yourself, and yet provide great areas for hosting friends and family whilst not feeling too enclosed. The walls are of stone construction offering considerable quietness and privacy whilst the ceiling heights add to the feeling of space throughout. The home is full of character and history and each bedroom is comfortable and spacious, allowing you flexibility to have large beds and furniture without sacrificing storage space. The location suited them well with The Old Cheese Show Field just along the road proving a blessing when you have children or dogs. The Cheese Show Field is a thriving hub of the local community; now providing a new playground as of this year, as well as an orchard, and new winding paths to explore. There are plans to improve it while also leaving parts to stay natural to support biodiversity. The home's wrap around garden is full of seasonal surprises that bloom yearly, and the trees are gorgeous through Spring and Autumn. The conservatory is very flexible year-round for growing plants, reading, exercising, or drying a load or two of washing in a heartbeat! The location also allows for a convenient walk to popular middle schools, Frome Community College, the town's Leisure Centre and it is an easy wander to the heart of the town centre.
