

Jubilee Street, E1
£1,400,000

Jubilee Street, E1

Double fronted Grade II listed three to four bedroom freehold house in sought after location. The entrance level to the property has two large reception rooms with generous natural light, a multi-purpose workspace to the front of the house and a room overlooking the garden which is currently set up as a home office. On the lower ground level you have the open kitchen/dining space, a storage room and family bathroom. On the first floor you have the three main double bedrooms each with ample space and an abundance of natural light made possible via the feature sashed windows which feature throughout the house. A large dual level garden with patio can be found to the rear.

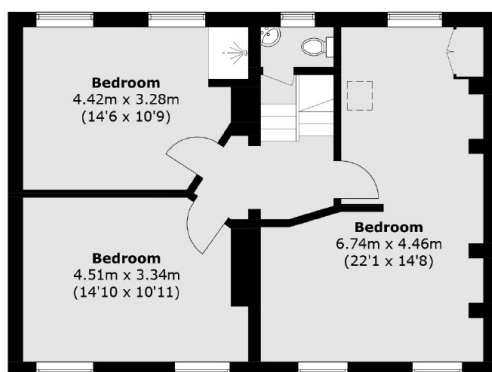

Jubilee Street is set within a location built on convenience. The wide variety of bars, restaurants, markets, boutique shops and other entertainment venues of Shoreditch and The City are within a short distance whilst transport links include Whitechapel (Elizabeth, District, Hammersmith & City lines, Overground), and the DLR at Shadwell make for convenient travel to all corners of the City and beyond. The green spaces of Stepney Green Park, Bethnal Green Gardens and award winning Victoria Park are all local to the property.
