Description

This sale presents a rare opportunity to buy a combined commercial / residential property within the picturesque village of Ripley. Featuring a beautiful living space with good sized kitchen, three reception rooms and three bedrooms plus a large private courtyard. In addition, a new boiler has been installed a year ago.

The commercial aspect of the property provides a spacious and versatile area, ideal for a range of businesses such as boutique shops, cosy cafes, or professional offices. Its prime location within Ripley Village ensures maximum exposure and foot traffic, promising an ideal setting for success. The premises offers two linked shop areas along with a first floor store room / office and a basement for storage.

Set amidst the scenic beauty of Ripley Village, residents and businesses alike can relish in the idyllic surroundings and vibrant community spirit. With historic architecture, charming cafes, and local amenities at your doorstep, Ripley offers a harmonious blend of rural tranquillity and modern convenience.

Location

One of Surrey's most coveted locales, Ripley offers a great variety of shops, including a good number of independent businesses, cafes, restaurants and pubs. The property is situated on the village High Street (B2215) with the village green behind.

With the A3 just two minutes from the property, you can be at the M25 junction 10 within five minutes.
