SOUTHFIELD ROAD, BRISTOL, BS9 3BG

This is an opportunity to acquire a lovely family home in the sought after Southfield Road in Westbury-on-Trym. This tree lined road has Redmaids High School at one end of the street and at the other a short walk to all the amenities of Westbury-on-Trym village. The prestigious Badminton School is a short distance as are the open spaces of The Downs, Canford Park and easy access to commuter routes.

This house has been in the same family for over 50 years and has been lovingly cared for in that time. The new owners will want to complete some updating but set in a great location and with stunning views to the rear this is a fantastic family home.

The property has generous and well proportioned living space with two large reception rooms, kitchen and veranda on the ground floor. Upstairs are the 4 bedrooms and the family bathroom.

The house also has the benefit of a garage which is currently used for storage, and also a large undercroft providing a useful utility room, additional wc and storage. The front part of the undercroft is currently used as a workshop and does not have restricted head height so would be a dream for anyone requiring a workspace.

Outside to the front is a paved driveway which provides off-street parking for numerous cars and a lovely garden with an array of mature shrubs. To the rear are beautiful gardens with mature shrubs, plants and flowers and an quaint wooden home currently for the owners pet cats.
