Drws Y Mynydd Dolwen

Roslyn Bay LL29 8SS

£895,000

Magnificent detached former rectory set within beautifully managed private grounds in an idyllic setting on the edge of Llysfaen village, adjacent to the historic Grade II Listed village church.

VIEWING HIGHLY RECOMMENDED

Drws y Mynydd is a fine example of a sympathetically upgraded and modernised former rectory offering superb living and entertaining space for a family. Approached along a sweeping tree lined gravel driveway, the property sits within its own beautifully maintained private grounds backing onto open countryside, enjoying open views.

The house offers stylish, immaculately presented accommodation upgraded with modern kitchens and bathrooms whilst maintaining original character features throughout .

The impressive reception hall with its feature balustrade turn staircase gives way to 5 downstairs receptions rooms and an attractive country style kitchen, whilst upstairs there are 5 bedrooms with the main bedroom having dressing room and ensuite bathroom. Family Bathroom and separate W.C. Central heating is provided throughout, part double glazing.

A truly beautiful family home set in equally attractive landscaped grounds.

Location

Set in private grounds on the edge of the village within close proximity of the village church and a short distance from Mynydd Marian local nature reserve, an area of outstanding natural beauty. The ancient village of Llysfaen is bordered by Rhyd y Foel and Abergele to the East, Dolwen to the South West. The Grade II listed church nearby dates back to 1777 whilst the original reputedly from the 1620's, later extended in 1846. The property is within a short drive of the A55 expressway, the North Wales coastal path, promenade and the popular coastal towns of Colwyn Bay and Llandudno.
