DESCRIPTION

The Property comprises a prominent upper ground floor self-contained office suite fronting Cook Street.

Directly adjoining occupiers include San Carlo and Piccolino with The Ivy due to locate into the Bank of England Building directly opposite (Q4 2024). Exciting adjacent occupiers on Castle Street include Liverpool Gin, Bacarro, King Street Town House, Alchemist, Neighbourhood, Rudy's and Riva Blue.

The current self contained suite extends to circa 802 sq m / 8,635 sq ft and benefits from a dedicated entrance from Cook Street. The extensive high quality accommodation is open plan with plentiful natural light to the front and rear with extensive head heights of between 3.3m to 4.2m and up to 5.2 metres around the glazed lightwells. In addition the space benefits from a ceiling mounted air conditioning / air handling system with staff toilets to the rear. The unit offers flexibility in terms of subdivision options to account for operator led requirements.

In addition, the space benefits from direct access into the rear loading yard and bin stores for deliveries, loading and refuse. The rear yard also provides options for suitable extraction routes and location of plant, in addition to suitable evacuation routes. The main Castle Chambers entrance on Castle Street also provides suitable ground floor disability access to the subject unit.

OPPORTUNITY

Castle Chambers offers a truly exciting leasing opportunity adjoining Castle Street in Liverpool's premium bar restaurant and leisure quarter. The units provide flexible accommodation and offer a range of uses which could include bar restaurant, leisure, boutique gym, retail, health and continued office uses (subject to relevant planning consents).

The accommodation provides a range of layouts to include a large single unit or two rectangular layout options.
