16 Mayland Avenue, Hull, HU5 5JA

£160,000

Tucked away on the ever-popular Mayland Avenue in Hull, this three-bedroom end terrace offers a rare chance to unlock real value. Priced to reflect the opportunity on offer, it's an exciting prospect for first-time buyers, growing families, or creative renovators ready to reimagine a home to their own style.

The layout already boasts generous proportions, with three well-sized bedrooms and a welcoming reception room, but the real attraction lies in the scope to transform the space. From reconfiguring the ground floor to create an open-plan kitchen/living area, to refreshing the interiors with modern finishes, the possibilities are endless.

A handy downstairs utility room, WC, and pantry add to the practicality, while the upstairs provides spacious bedrooms ready to be reworked into something special. Outside, the private rear garden offers a blank canvas for landscaping, and the garage to the rear gives valuable storage or workshop potential.

With no onward chain and priced with modernisation in mind, this is your chance to create something truly amazing in a sought-after location. A viewing is the first step to seeing just how much potential this home has to offer.
