

31 Blundell Road, Liverpool, L38 9EE

£730,000

Built in 1920 this EXTENDED detached 4 (DOUBLE) bedroom family home set within a LARGE PLOT on Blundell Road offers a perfect blend of CHARACTER and modern living. Living in Hightown means you can enjoy the tranquillity of a sought-after COASTAL village with its Pub, Coffee Shop and Convenience Store while still being within easy reach of Liverpool's vibrant city life on 20 minutes away by TRAIN. The local community is friendly and welcoming, making it a wonderful place to settle down, with Blundellsands Sailing Club and Hightown Cricket club there is plenty of opportunity to get involved.

This property is not just a house; it is a home filled with POTENTIAL and memories waiting to be made. If you are looking for a SPACIOUS, character-filled residence in a picturesque location, within a large plot this is an opportunity not to be missed.

Upon entering through the porch area you are greeted by an impressive hallway with original galleried staircase, two spacious reception rooms, providing ample room for families to relax together and entertaining. The modern and stylish kitchen is well equipped with breakfast island for casual dining, a large dining space and patio doors onto the WEST facing expansive GARDEN. A handy utility/laundry keeps noisy appliances out of the way. With four generously sized DOUBLE bedrooms plus an office this home is perfect for families or those who desire extra space for guests or a home office. The property boasts three bathrooms, adding convenience for busy mornings and ensuring that everyone has their own space.

The large garage and adjoining storage area have potential for conversion into a self contained annex or for storing vehicles.
