Nestled in the heart of the sought after village of Lytchett Matravers, this beautiful four double bedroom character cottage, originally built circa 1750, seamlessly blends period charm with modern living. Sympathetically extended over time, the property offers a rare combination of space, style, and timeless appeal.

From the moment you step inside, you're welcomed by a warm, inviting atmosphere and a wealth of original features, including exposed beams, oak floors, and a beautifully preserved original fireplace with gas fire that forms the cosy centrepiece of one of the two generously proportioned living rooms.

The home offers exceptional versatility, featuring four spacious double bedrooms, two well appointed bathrooms, and a dedicated study/playroom – ideal for family life or remote working. The layout is perfectly suited for both entertaining and everyday comfort, with two separate reception rooms providing flexible living space for all occasions.

Near the entrance of the property lies a modern kitchen yet in keeping with the period, that flows effortlessly into the extended living areas creating a perfect blend of character and contemporary flair.

Outside, there's an incredible mature garden, thoughtfully landscaped to offer a haven of peace and privacy. At its far end lies a beautifully crafted garden cabin/office, ideal for those seeking a creative or professional retreat surrounded by nature.

Additional features include a detached garage, ample driveway parking, and a location that combines village tranquillity with excellent access to local amenities, countryside walks, and nearby towns.
