Summary

Nestled towards the head of Hale Street in the vibrant area of Sheffield, this charming two-bedroom end terrace house offers a delightful blend of modern living and classic character. Just a stone's throw from the bustling Abbeydale Road, residents will enjoy easy access to a variety of shops, cafes, and amenities that this cosmopolitan neighbourhood has to offer.

Upon entering, you are welcomed into a tastefully decorated living room, featuring a lovely front-facing bay window that fills the space with natural light. The rear dining kitchen is both functional and inviting, complete with stairs leading down to a useful cellar, perfect for additional storage. From the kitchen, you can access the rear yard, which provides a lovely outdoor space for relaxation.

The first floor comprises a landing that leads to a second double bedroom, utilised as a home office by the current vendors, showcasing the versatility of the space. The generously sized bathroom on this level is well-appointed, catering to all your needs. Ascending to the second floor, you will find the main bedroom, which boasts charming views from an original gable window, creating a serene retreat.

Externally, the property features a front forecourt with gated access to a private side garden, which has previously accommodated off-road parking due to its dropped curb. To the rear, a small and enclosed courtyard awaits, providing an ideal setting for alfresco dining or simply enjoying the fresh air.

This delightful end terrace house is perfect for first-time buyers or those seeking a cosy home in a lively area. With its appealing features and convenient location, it is a property not to be missed.
