VIRTUAL TOUR AVAILABLE Tucked away in the pretty village of Soudley, this unique and characterful two-bedroom cottage comes with around one-third of an acre, beautiful gardens and outbuildings, and far-reaching views across fields and woodland. Previously registered as a smallholding, the grounds have hosted chickens, goats and rabbits, and include productive beds for fruit and vegetables thanks to the rich, well-tended soil. Access is via a charming footbridge, setting a wonderfully private first impression.

A welcoming lounge centres on a period feature fireplace, creating a cosy heart to the home. The generous kitchen/diner, complete with Rayburn, provides ample space for everyday living and entertaining. Upstairs are two bedrooms served by a family bathroom.

Soudley is a small village just outside Cinderford, home to a primary school, the Dean Heritage Centre with its popular café, a welcoming village pub and the scenic Soudley Ponds—ideal for woodland walks and weekend strolls.
