Property Description

Quilliam are proud to present this charming four-bedroom, semi-detached Edwardian House For Sale. This property offers the opportunities for a family to find their forever home, and add design it however they'd like.

The space offers four bedrooms, three of them are generous doubles, perfect for a growing family, and one is a single room, ideal for a home office or child's room. The bedrooms are airy and abundant with potential.

The house features a single bathroom, basic but ready to be transformed into a relaxing sanctuary. There is one kitchen, a place where you can create culinary delights. The kitchen is blessed with natural light, and a breakfast area, a perfect spot for those early morning coffees or late-night snacks.

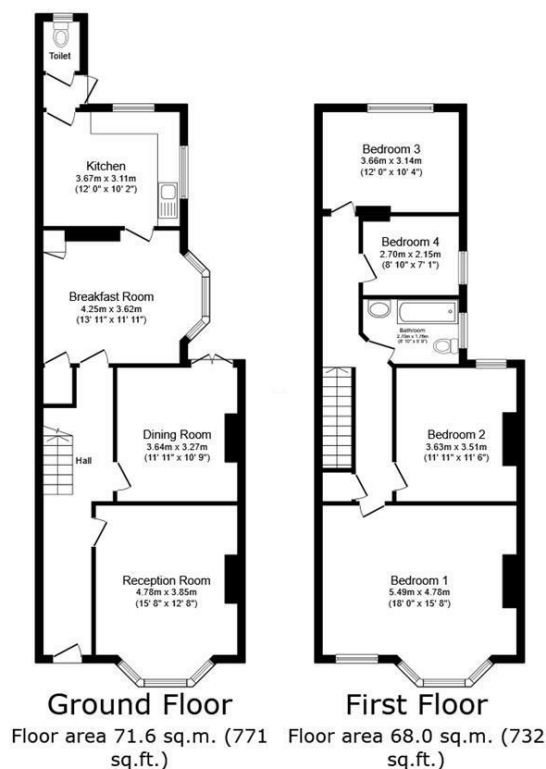

But that's not all! This home boasts three reception rooms. The second reception room is graced with large windows allowing plenty of natural light, and a fireplace, promising cosy evenings in winter. The third reception room also features large windows and built-in storage, giving you a little extra space to tuck things away neatly.

Not to mention, the house falls under council tax band F and is ideally suited to families. For those who appreciate unique features, there's a welcoming fireplace, a private driveway for secure off-street parking, and a garden, a beautiful outdoor space where your children can play safely or where you can entertain guests in the summer.

Situated in a sought-after location, this house is truly a hidden gem waiting for the right family to turn it into a dream home.
