Property Description

A very well presented small two double bedroom conversion flat with private garden, well located in residential road and within easy access to Boston Manor Underground Station and Hanwell Mainline Station.

Located on the ground floor of this detached Victorian house the property retains some original features giving it character with modern fittings including a nicely appointed kitchen and bathroom and laminate flooring.

The accommodation includes entrance hall with storage, front double bedroom with bay window and fireplace, second double bedroom with fireplace and bathroom. To the rear of the property is a kitchen with a door to the exterior side return. The kitchen then leads to a reception area with bio fold doors leading onto a private paved garden.

The property will be redecorated for the new tenants.

Available 1 December and is unfurnished.

Viewing highly recommended.
