LOCATION AND COMMUNICATION

Rock House Lane is to be found on the edge of Torquay, enjoying a semi rural location, reached from the coastal road linking Torquay with the riverside village of Shaldon. The village of Maidencombe gives access to the South West coastal footpath, it has a beach and thatched country pub/restaurant. Torquay Golf Club is in the neighbourhood, reached by a short car journey leading towards St Marychurch where can be found a lively community of shops, restaurants, banking facilities, Churches of several denominations, doctors surgery and schooling.

To the opposite side of the Teignmouth Road (A379) is found the village of Stoke in Teignhead which has a primary school (subject to admissions policy), parish Church and village hall. From Stoke in Teignhead the road leads towards the market town of Newton Abbot which has a train station linking to the inter city network and access, by the means of the A380, to the M5 motorway leading towards Exeter.

SERVICES Mains water, gas, electricity and drainage are all connected, subject to the necessary authorities and regulations.

INTERNET

A private company supplies the internet achieving a speed of approximately 50mb throughout the house, pool area and games room.
