The Location

This house enjoys a prime position near the top of sought after Broadway. With the promenade just steps away and even a Bay View from the bow window in the bedroom this house really does have a super location. Bare and Torrisholme villages are close by with plenty of local amenities Well attended local churches, two sought after primary schools, and a secondary school just a walk away make this a superb location for families. The villages have plenty of shops and local businesses and there is a regular bus service. The local train station at Bare connects through to the West Coast main line at Lancaster within minutes and the new link road means there is direct road access to the M6. With Happy Mount Park and Morecambe's iconic promenade close by this is a great location.

The House

This stunning detached house has the elegant and generous proportions of the 1930s and combines stylish character details with modernised and extended accommodation. There is driveway parking and a front garden. The smart new front door opens to the porch and from there to a wide, welcoming hallway. Stairs lead up to the first floor and there is a parquet style wooden floor. Matching oak internal doors complete the look. The house has two generous reception rooms. The front sitting room has an elegant bow window and focal fire and at the rear the second sitting room has a French door to the garden and focal fire. The kitchen diner is sleek and modern in gloss white with integrated appliances. It is open plan to the extended living space at the rear which has Velux windows and French Doors. There is also a utility room, a ground floor cloak room and modern WC.

Upstairs & Outside

On the first floor you will find four generous double bedrooms with built in wardrobes. The modern four piece bathroom has under floor heating. At the rear the house has a large lawn garden that really makes the most of the sun. There is a paved seating area in front of the garden room, ideal for entertaining in the
