They is a nearby Health Centre and a whole beautiful coastline to explore.

Welcome Home

The double glazed front door has a covered entrance and opens to a light, welcoming hallway. Stairs with a stripped and stained banister lead up to the first floor and doors open to the ground floor rooms. The hallway has space for furniture. The lounge is a generous room at the front of the house over looking the front garden and tidy block paving. There is a focal point of a glass fronted, living flame gas fire with marble hearth and back plate. Double doors connect to the rear dining room which also enjoys a focal fire and provides additional family living space. The dining room also connects to the kitchen giving this family house the perfect, versatile flow of space.
