Welcome Home

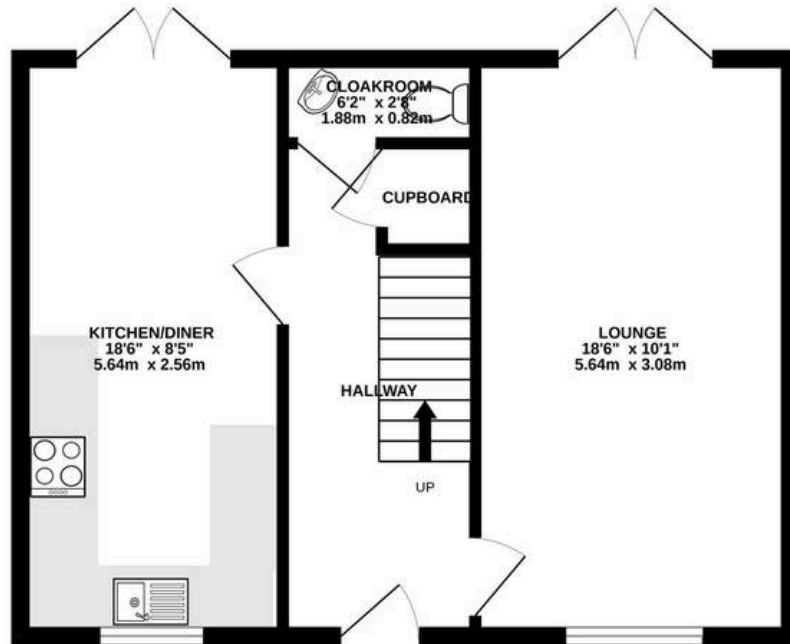

This could be the perfect modern home located on a pleasant, quiet cul de sac within this modern residential development. The front door opens to a light, airy central hallway. The lounge diner and kitchen diner both span the entire depth of the house and both have double French Doors at the rear opening to a wide, landscaped rear garden. Being open plan and airy with fresh, modern décor this house is the perfect blank canvas for you to settle in and set up home. Being situated on a quiet cul de sac is the icing on the cake. The kitchen is modern with integrated appliances and situated to the front meaning the dining space opens to the rear garden - the perfect layout for enjoying time with family and friends. Having fast fibre broadband to house makes this the perfect place for those who work from home as well.

Bedrooms and Bathrooms

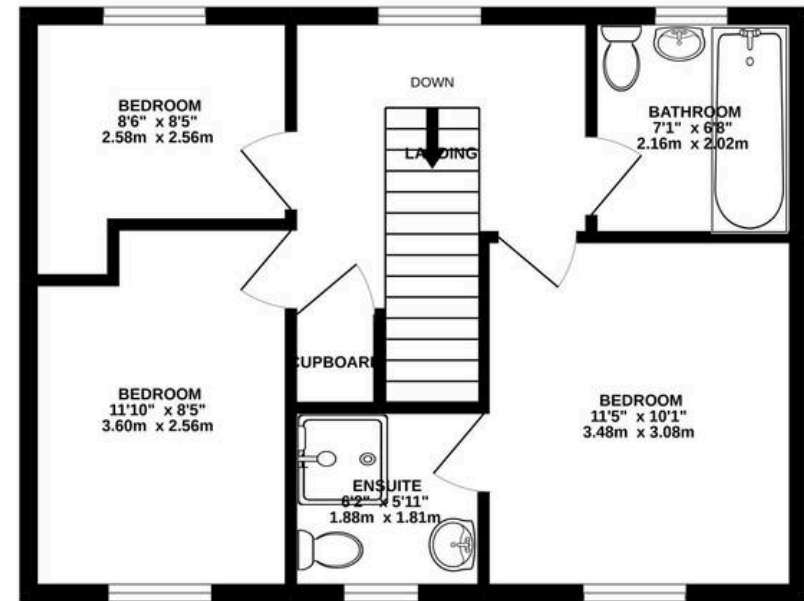

Having a central landing means the house enjoys a rear window overlooking the garden and is light and bright. Three bedrooms open to either side of the landing. The master bedroom enjoys a modern en-suite shower room. The bathroom has a stylish, modern finish and there is an over bath shower with screen to the side. A cloakroom/ WC completes the ground floor accommodation.
