Asking price £375,000

8 Brentry Avenue

Description

Arranged over three floors this lovely 3 double bedroom victorian style home has a wealth of character and features set with great access both into and out of the city in the increasingly popular BS5 area. Comprising inner hallway leading to a stylish full width kitchen / dining room with a central island with a feature hob and extractor fan. The dining area leads through to the cosy living room with wood burning stove and stripped and varnished floorboards giving a nice open plan feel.

Above are 2 double bedrooms, both with open feature recesses to the chimney breasts with more stripped and varnished floors, a lovely modern bathroom and stairs from the light and airy landing to the master bedroom / loft room above.

With Upvc double glazing, gas central heating, the benefits of solar panels providing cheaper electricity and external wall insulation helping keep costs down the house
