50 Richmond Road

Description

Beautifully presented Victorian terrace located on popular Richmond Road just a short walk away from St Georges Park. This lovely home has retained much of its period charm and has a sunny west facing garden.

Offering a spacious hallway with storage, bayed living room with wood burner and a really bright kitchen diner with original dresser and double doors leading out to the garden. Upstairs you'll find two double bedrooms and a further single/study along with a stylish shower room.

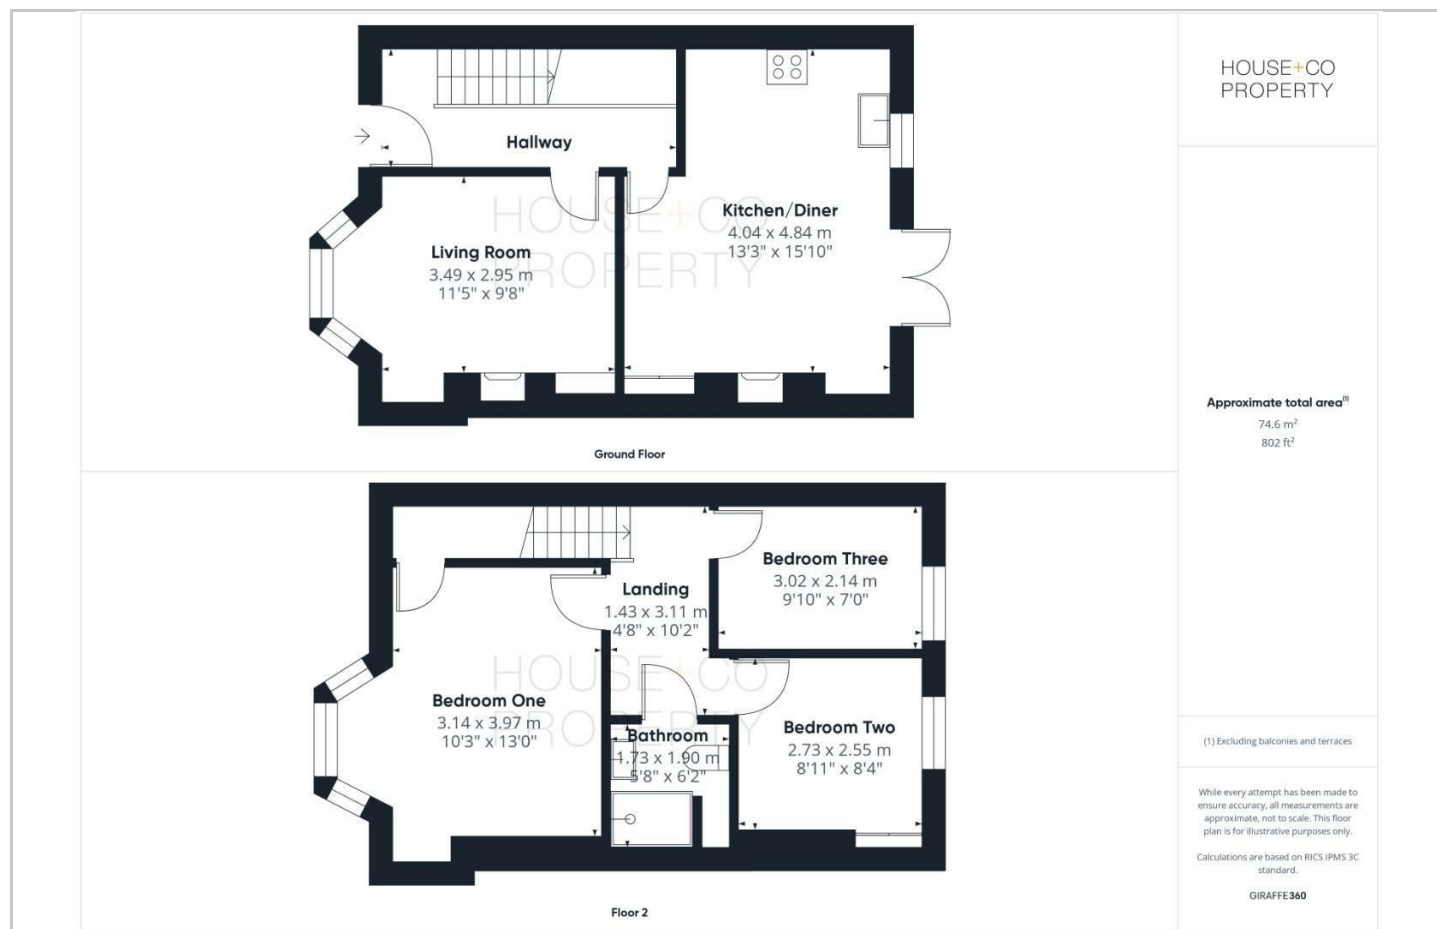

Outside to the rear is a west facing garden with patio seating area, lawn and lots of plants and shrubs. Just a short stroll from the local eateries, independent shops and pubs this would make an ideal first home or step up the ladder. Please call to view.
