A nicely presented ground floor one bedroom apartment with private sun terrace and parking for two vehicles, situated in the coastal village of Porthcurno close to the sandy beaches and the Minack Theatre. The accommodation comprises of one double bedroom, bathroom, open plan lounge/dining room and kitchen with fitted appliances. French doors leading onto a private sun terrace for exclusive use of this property. Double glazed throughout. The apartment is in a building which has been converted from the old Cable Wireless school rooms, and as well as the off street two parking spaces; there are landscaped communal gardens and a large terrace area with barbeque and drying facilities. Any owner of the property has the use of the tennis courts close to the building. This property would make an ideal holiday or lock up and leave for those looking for a low-maintenance residence. Due to the popularity and lack of availability of apartments such as this we recommend an early appointment to view.
